Today’s readings challenge us to see God moving in the midst of difficult times and assures us that, even when our faith seems inadequate, God can do great things through it.

But do we trust in God’s timing? Or are we reaching out to God with our own time-line? While it is okay to communicate our desires to God, it isn’t helpful to expect God to bow to our wants. It is best for us to humbly ask Him to change our hearts. Teach us patience and trust in You, Lord. Often, God’s responses are not what we expect either. When the apostles asked Jesus to increase their faith, His answer about having faith the size of a mustard seed probably did cause their faith to increase! Are we willing to change our expectations of God’s answers?

This Monday and Tuesday is fall Clergy Conference. Please pray for safe travels of all the priests of the archdiocese and open hearts as they learn from whatever topic is presented. May the conference enrich our priests, who will in turn be able to enrich our parishes.

Also, please pray for me as I leave with 16 others (from several parishes) to the Holy Land on Wednesday. This will be my third time going, but first time as a priest. Now I will be offering the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass at select holy sites! I will also get to spend time in Egypt. That’s been on my bucket-list since about 3rd grade.

God’s Peace,

Lord, please bless him that his formation will fully prepare him to love and serve You.

O Glorious Apostle,

Gospel Question of the Week

Gospel: Luke 17:5-10
Key Passage: “If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.” (Luke 17:6)

Question for Adults: Being “in Christ” means living as Christ teaches. What signs do you see in your life of generosity, forgiveness, hospitality, or any other of Jesus’ teachings?
Question for Youth: The Gospel tells us even a little bit of faith is enough to make amazing things happen. How are you keeping your faith alive and growing? What good things happen in your life because of your faith?
Question for Children: Jesus teaches us that our faith is powerful and with it, we can do great things. We can forgive, love, and share with others. Which of these do you do most often?

P.R.E. News

The 5th graders and their parents will meet in St. James Parish Center for Family Night this Wednesday, October 9. Younger siblings who are not yet in P.R.E. are welcome to come too. Families are invited to bring rosaries from home because our evening will focus on the rosary. Grades K-4 and 6, 7 and 8 have regular P.R.E. classes.

Parent Meeting about First Reconciliation

There will be a meeting for parents of children receiving First Reconciliation this Sunday, October 6 at 2:00 p.m. at St. Elizabeth Ann’s Parish Center, Room C. This is the second option, the first option for the meeting was on October 2. Parents from St. James/Seton School, the P.R.E. program, Catechesis of the Good Shepherd and home schools are invited. Faith Reflections

This Monday, October 7 is the Feast of the Holy Rosary. I was able to attend the Christ Our Life conference in Des Moines last fall. One of the speakers was Fr. Leon Pereira, Chaplain to English speaking pilgrims in Medjugorje. I like what he had to say about the Rosary.

Fr. Leon told the story of he and his siblings using an orange crayon and adding themselves into old family photos. They even drew themselves in their parents’ wedding picture. He likened saying the rosary to a time machine with us adding ourselves to pictures like the Birth of Jesus, the Wedding at Cana, the Agony in the Garden, the Resurrection of Jesus. What a wonderful approach to meditation on the Mysteries of the Holy Rosary.

Let us embrace this beautiful prayer with renewed zeal during October, the month of the Holy Rosary.

“My little ones, never forget that the poor are Our Lord; in caring for the poor say to yourself: This is for my Jesus—what a great grace!” (St. Jeanne Jugan)

“The school of Christ is the school of charity. On the last day, when the general examination takes place, there will be no question at all on the text of Aristotle, the aphorisms of Hippocrates, or the paragraphs of Justinian. Charity will be the whole syllabus.” (St. Robert Bellarmine)

Pray the Rosary

Did you know that the rosary is recited in the St. James adoration chapel every Tuesday through Friday mornings at 6:00 am before the 6:30 am Mass?

On Saturdays, at 7:30 am, 15 decades of the rosary (joyous, sorrowful and glorious mysteries), along with the Divine Mercy Chaplet are recited.

All are welcome to join in praying these powerful prayers.

Preferential Option for the Poor

“The Church’s love for the poor… is part of her constant tradition. This love is inspired by the Gospel of the Beatitudes, of the poverty of Jesus, and of His concern for the poor. Love for the poor is even one of the motives for the duty of working so as to ‘be able to give to those in need.’ It extends not only to material poverty but also to the many forms of cultural and religious poverty.” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #2444)

Week 6 - Take Hold of Eternal Life
Saturday, October 12 | 7:00 a.m. | Parish Center

By now we understand the theme of this semester—we are engaging in a spiritual battle, the Fight of Faith! But what is the ultimate “Why?”

St. Paul provides the clear answer, “Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life to which you were called.”

Brothers, we are called to eternal life in Heaven with God, with our families and with each other! That’s what we are fighting for. To be called to eternal life IS to be called to be a saint! God calls us to greatness!

This week, Sean Dalton is here to inspire us to this higher calling and identity! We promise he won’t yell at you like Deacon Harold, but you will walk away with practical tools to guide your way.

Knowing who you are changes everything.

To all of God’s beloved in Rome, who are Called to be Saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Ahmed and Zahra are working diligently to complete their 350 hours of Sweat Equity and attending all the required classes in preparation for successful homeownership. Their future home at 3019 Pratt St. was drywalled on September 27th and 28th. It will be painted on October 11th. If you would still like to help with construction, sign up online at: https://tinyurl.com/faithfulbuilders2019.

Despite the heat and rain during Builder’s Blitz Week, 8 houses made it to the drywall stage and will be completed in the next several weeks. The 3800 and 3900 blocks of N 23st St. are being transformed by Habitat for Humanity. It’s an amazing transformation and very exciting.

Thanks to many generous donors, we have now reached $5,000.00 in contributions. We are half way to our goal. If you are able to make a cash donation, please put it in an envelope marked Habitat and place it in the collection basket. In-kind donations are also very much appreciated. We are extremely grateful for a very large in-kind offer.

Hospitality is a virtue that teaches us how to treat and love others. The St. James Little Women Hospitality Program is centered on the virtue of hospitality for girls 5th to 8th grade.

• The girls will learn practical skills such as baking, cleaning, setting a table, manners and conversation, writing letters, care for the elderly, gardening, and more. These activities will be combined with stories of saints, prayer, and snacks.

• The girls will receive a bracelet and each month will get a charm for their bracelet corresponding to the lesson for that day.

• We will meet in the St. James Parish Center from 3:15 to 4:30pm on the 4th Mondays from Sept – May.

Dear St. James Parish Community,

The school year is off to a great start at St. James/Seton Catholic School. We have wonderful students, talented teachers, and dedicated parents. We truly have much to be grateful for! One of our blessings also is the generous St. James Parish Community. Your support of the school is well-known and indeed appreciated. Jesus told us to go forth and make disciples, and with your support that is what we are doing at SJS Catholic School. Thank you for all you do.

We wanted to remind you of our upcoming event that provides you with an opportunity to support SJS Catholic School, and also have a fun night out. The annual SOAR Dinner is November 23rd at Creighton Prep High School. The funds from the event help us to address the needs of the school, and also add to the school technology and tuition assistance funds. Your support of the event will help to secure a successful school year for our students. We are confident it will be a great night for all.

One of the highlights of SOAR has become our Spirit of SJS Award. We use the award to recognize important individuals who have had a lasting impact on the success of our fine school. We know we owe much to the leaders who have come before us. This year it is a true honor to recognize The Servants of Mary. This religious group served as many of our first teachers and administrators and are still thought of kindly throughout the school community. We are indeed in debt to their efforts. We hope you can join us in celebrating their time at SJS.

We want to personally invite you to attend the event and enjoy a night out to help a great cause. Purchasing tickets for the event or to donate, please visit: bidpa.net/soar2019 or contact the school office. If you are unable to attend you can still support the event through a number of ways: purchasing raffle tickets, contributing a gift card or auction item, making a monetary donation of any amount, and registering for online bidding.

Thank you again for all that you do. Your support helps to shape the future of our community and Church. If you have any questions feel free to contact us in the school office.

Peace,

William Kelly

Scripture Reflections

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control.” 2 TIMOTHY 1:7

Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything, all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party, at work or out shopping, would your actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

FORGIVENESS OF SINS AND I LOOK FORWARD TO THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD AND LIFE OF THE WORLD TO COME. AMEN.
