Jesus said in reply, “Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?” - Luke 17: 17-18
I BELIEVE IN ONE GOD, THE FATHER ALMIGHTY, MAKER OF HEAVEN AND EARTH, OF ALL THINGS VISIBLE AND INVISIBLE. I BELIEVE IN ONE LORD JESUS CHRIST,

Come help us celebrate "Faith, Family, Future." Proceeds from the SOAR Development Dinner will help support special projects at St. James/Seton Catholic School as well as the tuition assistance program. We rely on funds generated from our own fundraising, our parishioners, and the support of local businesses to help forward our mission.

We will also honor The Servants of Mary with the Spirit of SJS Award. This religious group served as many of our first teachers and administrators and are still thought of kindly throughout the school community. We are indeed in debt to their efforts.

As you read this, I am in the Holy Land – possibly at one of my favorite places, the Mount of Beatitudes! This land is so remarkable, that Naaman, from our first reading this Sunday, wanted to take two mule-loads of the dirt back to his own home so he could still worship the one true God on Israeli soil. I’ve taken some dirt back with me on previous Holy Land trips, but not that much! My first trip was ten years ago, with KVSS. When I came back, I told my best friend about my experiences and how I got to walk on the same Roman road that Jesus walked on. He wasn’t impressed. In fact, he challenged me as to why I was speaking so excitedly about it. Why did I seem so attached to the things of this world? Isn’t encountering Jesus more important than encountering the road He walked on? He was right, although he also misinterpreted my excitement. It is difficult to explain how awesome it is to be where God Himself decided to crawl, walk, run, bleed, etc. The things of this world which encountered Jesus two thousand years ago helped me grow closer to Jesus.

Naaman was healed by God after plunging into the Jordan River seven times but he didn’t ask to take the water back. He figured the God who healed him dwelt on that land and he wanted to choose that land too as he gave honor and worship to God. The focus was on the God who healed him. Of the ten lepers healed by Jesus in the Gospel, only one focused on the healer more than the healing and returned to thank Jesus. Where is your focus?

Our SJS Catholic school helps our children encounter Jesus. Will you help support this major apostolate of our parish by attending the SOAR dinner – or helping in some other way? See page two for details. You may walk away from that dinner with worldly things, so keep in mind that the purpose of this fun evening is to keep alive the environment that helps children (and adults) to encounter, then follow Jesus.

God’s Peace,

Fr. Knecht

MADE, CONSUBSTANTIAL WITH THE FATHER, THROUGH HIM ALL THINGS WERE MADE. FOR US MEN AND FOR OUR SALVATION HE CAME DOWN FROM HEAVEN,
Gospel Question of the Week

Key Passage: Jesus said, “Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?” (Luke 17:17-18)

Question for Adults: What are some ways you can think of to show gratitude to God? Make them concrete and real.

Question for Youth: Only one of the lepers returned to give thanks. This past week, when have you stopped to thank someone for something good they have done for you? When have you thanked God this week?

Question for Children: Make up a prayer which tells God you are thankful for everything you have, even if it’s not all you want.

P.R.E. News

St. Teresa’ words are so inspiring:

“Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which He looks compassion on this world. Yours are the hands through which He walks to do good. Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes, you are His body. Christ has no body now on earth but yours.” (Jo Kusek, 402-572-0369)

Faith Reflections

This Sunday, October 13, Pope Francis canonizes Blessed Cardinal John Henry Newman, Indian Sister Marian Thresia, founder of the Congregation of the Sisters of the Holy Family; Italian Sister Giuseppina Vannini; Brazilian Sister Dulce Lopes Pontes, and Marguerite Bays, a Swiss consecrated virgin of the Third Order of St. Francis. EWTN will show the Mass live at 2:30 in the morning with an encore at 7:00 in the evening.

Cardinal Newman will become England’s first new saint since the canonization of St. John Ogilvie in 1976. Newman was a 19th century theologian, poet, Catholic priest and cardinal. Originally an Anglican priest, he converted to Catholicism in 1845. Ordained a Catholic priest in 1847; he was made a cardinal by Pope Leo XIII in 1879, although he was not a bishop. Newman’s conversion to the Catholic faith was controversial in England, and resulted in him losing many friends, including his own sister who never spoke to him again. Cardinal Newman founded the Oratory of St. Philip Neri in England, and was particularly dedicated to education, founding two schools for boys. He died in Birmingham in 1890 at the age of 89. His feast day will be October 9, the day he converted to Catholicism. Below is one of his most famous quotes.

“God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons.”

This video tells the story of John Henry Newman the 19th century Anglican priest who converted to Catholicism and became not only a priest but a cardinal. He taught how Catholic doctrine develops but it doesn’t change. He also spoke out against religious liberalism which treats feelings more important than doctrine. Come learn more about this man whose writings and teachings defend the teachings of the Church as they have always been taught. (Cardinal Newman will be canonized on October 13th by Pope Francis.) Movie dates and times are Fri. October 18 at 7:00 p.m.; Wed. October 23 at 7:00 p.m. and Sun. October 27 at 2:00 p.m. at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton’s Parish Center. Length: 70 minutes. For any questions contact Tom Schrad, 402-493-4112

Preferential Option for the Poor

We beg you, Lord, to help and defend us. Deliver the oppressed. Pity the insignificant. Raise the fallen. Show yourself to the needy. Heal the sick. Bring back those of your people who have gone astray. Feed the hungry. Lift up the weak. Take off the prisoners’ chains. May every nation come to know that you alone are God, that Jesus is your Child, that we are your people, the sheep that you pasture. Amen.

After WWII, the Medical Department of the US Army concluded, "Perhaps the most significant contribution of WWII military psychiatry was recognition of the sustaining influence of the small group...the absence...or their disruption during combat was mainly responsible for mental breakdown in battle."

This week, we will discover the need for Christian brotherhood is biblical. Inspiration, accountability and authentic friendship is indispensable in this fight of faith that we are caught up in. We can't fight the battle alone. We can attend TMIY to be spiritual feed but we can also attend TMIY to build up our small group. In this spiritual battle, the lives of men and families are at stake. Your presence alone is powerful.

Stewardship Scripture Reflections

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?” LUKE 17:18

Most of us live “easy” lives. We have food, shelter and clothing. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn’t this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you.

FORGIVENESS OF SINS AND I LOOK FORWARD TO THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD AND LIFE OF THE WORLD TO COME. AMEN.
